- A. Open Public Hearing and hear any objections by the noticed property owners of properties on which a nuisance has been declared to exist within the Brisbane Weed Abatement Program, Close the Public Hearing and sustain or overrule any objections which have been raised, and give direction to the enforcement officer to clear the properties that have not complied with the notice

Deputy Chief Johnson said that this public hearing was an annually occurring process whereby property owners who had received notification from the City to clear weeds deemed to be a fire danger could come and state why they should not be a part of the weed abatement process.

Mayor Lentz opened the public hearing. There being no members of the public wishing to speak, CM Conway made a motion, seconded by CM O'Connell, to close the public hearing.

Mayor Lentz thanked Deputy Chief Johnson for his presentation.

BUDGET WORKSHOP

A. Department Presentations

1. Public Works Department

-Marina

-Open Space

-Mountain Watch Presentation

2. Police Department

3. City Attorney

Each department presented their budget, outlining each of the proposed changes to their budgets from last year, and answering questions from Councilmembers.

As part of the Public Works Department budget presentation Mark Slichter from Callander Associates Landscape Architecture gave a presentation on the proposed Brisbane Turf Replacement Project and Ariel Cherbowsky Corkidi, San Bruno Mountain Watch Stewardship Coordinator gave a presentation on Reconnecting and Revitalizing Guadalupe Valley and the Guadalupe Valley Trail Initiative. Councilmembers asked questions and gave input to both presenters and to staff.

Councilmembers asked that a budget page be included in the City Attorney's section that breaks down the City's overall legal budget and that City Attorney Roush provide a breakdown of categories of legal fees at his upcoming evaluation.

City Manager Holstine talked about the next steps in the budget process and said that at the next budget hearing on June 30th he would bring back a list of the new items included in the proposed budget as well as a list of items that were not included but that came from the various commissions or non-profit groups. He said that Council would be able to then discuss which items to fund or not as well as which items could be considered as part of the Capital Improvement Program the following year.
